SIR,

I have the honor to forward herewith a copy of a note on the Criminal Tribe known as woddars in the Bangalore District, prepared by the Superintendent of Police Railways and C.I.D.
A general description of the community, subdivisions among the woddars and etc, have already been mentioned in part I of the note on woddars of Tumkur District, which was submitted to Government with my letter No. C.1470 dated 2-12-1920 for declaration and registration of that gang under the Criminal Tribes Regulation.

2. Part II of the enclosed memo gives details as regards the developmnent of the Tribe and the distribution of their families in the Bangalore District.
Part III deals with the criminality of the tribe and IV suggests the steps to be taken under the Criminal Tribes Regulation.

3. Woddars are of Telugu origin and emigrated into the Mysore State during the great famine. It is also believed that they were imported by many contractors who undertook the construction of forts, temples, etc,. They settled here owing to the advantageous conditions and show a tendency to multiply their settlements. It will seen from the enclosed memo that 83 families consisting of 185 males, 149 females and 176 children reside in 24 villages of the Bangalore District. Of these only 14 families own lands to the extent of 126 acres and pay an assessment of Rs. 125/- and the remaining are reported to live by cooly, and other means. Many of the members who have emigrated into the State from Ananthapur, Cuddapah and Bellary Districts, about 15 or 16 years ago are wandering in the State under different names from one place to another for the purpose of crime and bear a number of convictions for offences against property, and under the security sections. Not only are they related to one another but they are also associated in crime.

4. Of the 185 male adults, 57 have been convicted 100 times for offences against property and under the security sections in the State courts, as well as in the courts of British India. One female was also very recently convicted along with 3 males by the Sub Division Magistrate Chickballapur and for house breaking and theft and she is in jail. Many of the members of these woddars have joint convictions in 15 courts as shown in statement B and some of the settled woddars although take not part actually in the commission of crime, they are in the habit of harbouring itinerant woddars addicted to crime and share the booty.

5. Having regard to the criminality of the tribe, I request that the Woddars of the Bangalore District may be declared as a criminal tribe under section 3 and that a direction may be issued to the District Magistrate Bangalore District to register the members of the tribe found within his jursdiction under section 4 of the Criminal Tribes Regulation.

The members of the tribe are strong and sturdy and capable of travelling more than 20 miles in one night. Their house breaking operations are confined to a radious of 8 to 15 miles from their dwellings. It is therefore necessary to restrict their movements under section 12 of the Criminal Tribes Regulation to a smaller area i.e. the taluk in which they reside at present, where they would be known and their movements could be well watched. While at the same time there is much demand for their labour in the vicinity of their dwellings and they will not be inconvenienced in earning an honest livelihood.

6. Necessary draft notifications are herein enclosed.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

Inspector General of Police.

Note on the Woddars of the Bangalore District by the Superintendent of Police Railways and C.I.D. in Mysore.

Part I.

Woddars are of Telugu origin. They are of fine physique dark complexion, capable of much endurance and generally hardworking. As a class they are dirty, thriftless and hard drinkers. They smoke ganja and tobacco. They live in huts made of mat or grass out side the villages. They speak telugu and also the language of the country. They have also got slang terms of their own for exchanging information among themselves.

Sub divisions among them and their history in detail has already been described in my Memo on the Woddars of Tumkur District which was submitted to Government with Inspector General's No. C. 1470 dated 2-12-1920 for declaration and registration of that gang under Criminal Tribes Regulation.

Part II.

Development of the Tribe.

Woddars are found in all the taluks in the Bangalore District. They emigrated into the Mysore State from Orissa or (ಒರಿಸ್ಸ) and settled here owing to the advantegeous conditions. It is also believed that they were imported into this State by several contractors who under took the construction of forts, tanks, and temples etc,. This procedure even now adopted by the Public Works Department officers and contractors when large works are undertaken. The criminal woddars of the Bangalore District are herein dealt with. There are 83 families of woddars in the 24 villages as shown in Statement D. The total population is 510 of whom 185 are male adults, 149 females, and 176 children. They are not only related to one another but are also associated in crime. Many of them have emigrated into the Mysore State from Ananthapur, Bellary

Cuddapah Districts 8 or 10 years prior to the declaration of woddars as a proclaimed criminal tribe under the Criminal Tribes Act in those Districts, and they now state that they originally belonged to North Arcot, Chittoor and Salem Districts etc, where the woddars are not declared as criminal tribe.

Part III.

Criminality.

Woddars have earned a bad reputation as thieves. Though they cannot be properly classed among the professional criminal tribes, yet many of the accused detected in the commission of H.B. and theft, highway robbery and dacoity cases are found to be woddars especially of the itinerant and emigrant classes who have not settled down to homely life.

Statement A herein enclosed gives the details of convictions of each adult male member. It will be seen that 57 out of 185 male adults and one female have 101 convictions in the State courts as well as in 10 courts of British India, for offences against property and for having failed to furnish security for good behaviour.

The individuals noted in Nos. 44 to 510 are the members belonging to ~~1~~ one Ganganaboyi gang at Turvally of Bangalore Taluk. This gang first appeared on Kolar Gold Fields in 1904 and was halting at Niligiripalli near Marikuppam in Kolar Gold Fields limits. Members of this gang are scattered in all parts of the State for the purpose of crime. Some of the members of this gang were brought by a contractor for work on the Bommanahalli tank near Banasandra Railway station in December 1915. After the arrival of this gang there were sevaral burglaries in the adjoining villages of Gubbi and Turuvekere Taluks. In many of the cases these woddars were suspected, but they could not be booked for want of tangible proof. This gang absconded on 16-8-1916. Copy of the history published in confidential Gazette for October 1916 is herein enclosed.

This gang entered Bangalore District in December 1917 and took Mavattoor of Kankanhalli as their first seat, then it came to Anekal taluk without gang form and was halting near Hebbagody. It was responsible for a number of cases of house breaking and thefts in the vicinity. After the arrest of some persons the members scattered here and there. Now a portion of this gang under the leader Ganganboyi is halting at Turuvally in the limits of Jaraganahalli station since July 1920.

Members of the gang have a number of convictions and have given different names in different places. For instance the head man Ganganaboyi who is now at Turuvally of Bangalore taluk has got 10 convictions and his aliases are as follows.

Ramanboyadu alias Bangara, Subbadu alias Vallapur Subbadu, alias Perangala Bodigadu, alias Vadda Subbadu alias Vadda Ramadu, alias Thimmanaboyi, alias Ganganboyi, alias Subbanboyi.

This gang has been traced upto date to comprise 42 persons. Of these 15 are in jail undergoing sentences, 12 as under trial prisoners and 5 out of view and 10 are presnt at Turuvally.

Statement B shows the joint convictions of the members of the tribe in different courts. It will be seen that 40 persons had joint convictions in 15 courts.

Statement C shows the names of different courts in which the woddars were convicted.

Statement D shows that 14 families own lands to the extent of 126 acres and pay candayam of Rs. 125/. The remaining 69 families are said to live upon cooly and other means. Many of these settled woddars in the State harbour Donga woddars of Salem and other Districts of British India and share the booty..

Part IV.

Steps to be taken.

It will thus be seen that there is ample avidence against the tribe for being declared as a criminal under section 3 and ordered to be registered under section 4 of the Criminal Tribes Regulation.

As their sphere of operations is not confined to this State it is necessary that their movements be restricted under section 12 of the Criminal Tribes Regulation, the area of the taluk being sufficiently large enough to earn their livelihood if they lead an honest life.

Copy of the history of the gang published in Police confidential Gazette for October 1916.

" These woddars were brought to Bommanahalli in December 1915 by contractor Bhyrappa (brother-in-law of Police Inspector Mr. B.N. Gudiappa) without a gang form to work in the Bommanahalli tank near Banasandra Railway Station, the restoration of which has been taken up by him on contract. About the 1st week of December 1915 and in the beginning of January 1916 there were several burglaries committed in the adjoining villages of Gubbi Taluk and Turuvekere Sub Taluk. These woddars were then suspected by the Turuvekere Police, but as no property was traced to them, no action was taken. Petty burglaries became very frequent again in May and June last, but no tangible information was got about these woddars as they had been backed up by the contractor and his brother-in-law the Police Inspector.

In the middle of July 1916 Venkataboyi left for Peddamarlu in Malur Taluk for attending to the marriage of Venkataboyi and returned on 6th August 1916 bringing with them two other men named Guruvaboyi and Thimmaboyi Nos. 12 and 13. Some shppp were stolen in Hoshahalli near Dandinasivara and a burglary was committed on the night of the 31st July 1916 in the Turuvekere town. In the course of the investigation of these cases the skins of the sheep stolen at Hosahalli were traced to this gang as one of its members had sold them to a ryot at Banasandra and some vessels of the Dandinasivara case were also secured in the search of a hut in the camp of these Woddars and evidence was forthcoming that 8 of these woddars were seen going to and returning from Turuvekere on the night of the 31st July 1916 in a high drunken condition. When these people learnt of the search and seizure of some property in their camp while they had gone towards Turuvekere they absconded.

As it was reported that these woddars had been imported here by Police Inspector Mr. Gudiappa from Malur and Bowringpet taluks Mr. Govindarajalu Pillai of Gubbi Taluk was sent to those places to trace the gang. He was able to trace that these woddars were once near Niligiripalli that they were missing with other gangs of Kuppam and Punganur in Chittoor District in comitting depredations. He also found some women and children at Niligiripalli among whom were a few of those that had run away from Bommenahalli.

Further enquiries have since shown that these woddars originally belonged to Bonthalapalli of the Madanapalli taluk, that they were in Gollapalli of Hosur taluk for some time and then migrated to Gajalakothapalli of Bagepalli Taluk and laterly stopped in Susipalya near Chickballpur Taluk under the care of the Roman Catgalic Priest and had absconded after some of its members were prosecuted for bad livelihood. A section of this gang is taking trial in Chickballpur for some burglaries and dacoity committed in the Kolar District.
